Call for Papers: Journal of Gambling Issues - Special Issue Auckland International Gambling Conference 2024

The Journal of Gambling Issues (JGI) is excited to announce a special issue in conjunction with the upcoming Auckland International Gambling Conference 2024, organized by Auckland University of Technology and PGF Group in New Zealand. The theme of the conference, "Unveiling Progress: Treatment, Research, and Public Health Advances in Reducing Gambling Harm," aligns seamlessly with the mission of JGI.

We invite researchers, scholars, and practitioners to submit academic papers that explore innovative approaches, empirical research, and evidence-based practices addressing the multifaceted aspects of gambling harm reduction. This special issue aims to provide a comprehensive overview of advancements in treatment modalities, cutting-edge research findings, and public health initiatives that contribute to the ongoing dialogue on mitigating the adverse effects of gambling.

Submission Topics:

- Novel treatment interventions
- Epidemiological studies on gambling harm
- Behavioral and psychological research
- Public health policy and interventions
- Technological influences on gambling behaviors and harm
- Cross-cultural perspectives on harm reduction

Manuscript Submission Deadline: July 30, 2024

Contributors are encouraged to submit original research articles, systematic reviews, and critical commentaries that push the boundaries of our understanding of gambling-related issues.
